

NSRA Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy 2022

Definitions

1. In this NSRA Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy the following terms mean:
 - a. "Association" – Nova Scotia Rifle Association;
 - b. "Board" - means the Board of Directors of the Association; and
 - c. "Individuals"– All categories of membership defined in the Association's Bylaws, as well as all individuals engaged in activities with the Association including, but not limited to, athletes, their parents, coaches, managers, officials, volunteers, and committee or board members of the Association.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this Code is to ensure a safe and positive environment within the Association programs, activities, and events by making Individuals aware that there is an expectation of appropriate behavior consistent with the Association's mission and objectives. The Association supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect.

Application of this Code

3. This Code applies to Individuals' conduct during Association business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, tournaments, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with Association activities, Executive Committee and Board meetings and any other Association meetings.
4. An Individual who violates this Code may be subject to sanctions up to and including Membership Termination in accordance with NSRA By-Laws article 2-08. In addition to facing possible sanctions pursuant to the Association's Disciplinary policy, an Individual who violates this Code during a competition may be ejected from the competition or the playing area, and the Individual may be subject to sanctions pursuant to that competition's policies.
5. This Code also applies to Individuals' conduct outside of the Association's business, activities, and events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within the Association (and its work and sport environment) and is detrimental to the image and reputation of the Association. Such applicability will be determined by the Association at its sole discretion.

Responsibilities

- l. Report to the Association any ongoing criminal investigation, conviction, or existing bail conditions involving yourself, including, but not limited to, those for violence, child pornography, or possession, use, or sale of any illegal substance.

Volunteers

7. In addition to section 6 (above) volunteers have additional responsibilities. Volunteers are a critical part of the organization and the organization's success is directly related to volunteers carrying out their assigned responsibilities. Volunteers will:

- a. Act with honesty and integrity while carrying out any assigned responsibilities.
- b. Comply with both the letter and the spirit of any training or orientation provided by the Association.
- c. Take responsibility for actions and decisions. Follow reporting lines to facilitate the effective resolution of problems.
- d. Prudently manage and allocate assets and resources, both financial and material
- e. Use inoffensive language.
- f. Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively.

8. Volunteers will not:

- a. Exceed the authority of assigned position.
- b. Encourage athletes to consume illegal drugs, alcohol or performance-enhancing drugs.
- c. Engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under the age of 18 at any time or with an athlete 18 or over where there is a perceived imbalance of power.

Coaches and Team Officials

9. In addition to section 6 (above), coaches and team officials have many additional responsibilities. The coach-athlete relationship in particular is a privileged one and plays a critical role in the personal, sport, and athletic development of the athlete. Coaches must understand and respect the inherent power imbalance that exists in this relationship and must be extremely careful not to abuse it, consciously or unconsciously. Coaches and Team Officials will:

- a. Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability, and fitness level of the involved athletes.
- b. Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes.
- c. Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of athletes' medical and psychological treatments.
- d. Support the coaching staff of a training camp, provincial team, or national team, should an athlete qualify for participation with one of these programs.
- e. Provide athletes (and the parents/guardians of minor athletes) with the information necessary to be involved in the decisions that affect the athlete.
- f. Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person.
- g. Meet any coaching credentials, as required by the Association.
- h. Respect athletes playing with other teams and, in dealings with them, not encroach upon topics or actions which are deemed to be within the realm of 'coaching', unless after first receiving approval from the coaches who are responsible for the athletes.
- i. Recognize the power inherent in the position of coach and respect and promote the rights of all participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment. Coaches have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights.
- j. Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively.
- k. Use inoffensive language.

10. Coaches will not:

- a. Exceed the authority of assigned position
- b. Provide athletes with, or promote, encourage or condone the use by athletes of illegal drugs, alcohol, cannabis or performance enhancing substances or methods.
- c. Engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under the age of 18 at any time or with an athlete 18 or older where there is a perceived imbalance of power

Athletes (with the assistance of their caregivers when necessary)

11. In addition to section 6 (above), athletes will have additional responsibilities to:
 - a. Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, when such problems may limit their ability to travel, practice, or compete.
 - b. Participate and appear on-time and be prepared to participate to their best abilities in all competitions, practices, training sessions, tryouts, tournaments, and events.
 - c. Properly represent themselves and not attempt to participate in a competition for which they are not eligible by reason of age, classification, or other reason.
 - d. Adhere to the Association's rules and requirements regarding clothing and equipment.
 - e. Never ridicule a participant for a poor performance or practice.
 - f. Act in a sportsmanlike manner and not display appearances of violence, foul language, or gestures to other players, officials, coaches, or spectators.
 - g. Dress in a manner representative of the Association, focusing on neatness, cleanliness, and discretion.
 - h. Act in accordance with the Association's policies and procedures and, when applicable, additional rules as outlined by coaches or managers.
 - i. Refrain from consuming illegal drugs, alcohol or performance enhancing substances or methods and abide by local Range Standing Orders pertaining to cannabis consumption while participating in the Association competitions.
